VANISHED HOPES.

The following lines, found written on the back of a five hundred dollar Confederate note, are too good to be lost:

Representing nothing on God's earth now, And naught in the water below it, As a pledge of the nation that's dead and gone, Keep it, dear friend, and show it-

Show it to those who will lend an ear To the tale this paper can tell, Of liberty born of the patriot's dream, Of the storm cradled nation that fell.

Too poor to possess the precious ore, And too much of a stranger to borrow, We issued to-day a promise to pay, And hoped to redeem on the morrow.

The days rolled on, and weeks became years, But our coffers were empty still; Coin was so rare that the treasury quaked It a dollar should drop in the till.

But the faith that was in us was strong indeed, And our poverty well discerned; And these little checks represented the pay That our suffering volunteers carned.

We knew it had hardly a value in gold, Yet as gold our soldiers received it; It gazed on our eyes with a promise to pay, And each patriot soldier believed it.

But our boys thought little of price or pay, Or bills that were overdue; We knew if it bought us bread to-day 'Twas the best our poor country could do.

Keep it-it tells our history over, From the birth of its dream to the last; Modest and born of the angel hope, Like the hope of success it passed.

EDUCATIONAL.

RE-OPENING OF ST. JOHN'S COL-tution, one of the oldest in the State, now liberally endowed by the LegIslature, will open on the 18th of September next, with an entire re-organization. It is believed that no similar in-stitution offers greater advantages to those wishing to obtain a thorough liberal education, or to pursue a partial course. These advantages are, in part, the following: 1. Extensive and commodicus buildings, thoroughly repaired and refurnished, capable of boarding 130 students, and of accommodating more than three hundred; all situated in one of the most beautiful and salubrious localities.

She appeals especially to the old Alexandrian; and the daughter of a native Alexandrian; and the daughter of a native Alexandrian; and more especially to the Episcopalians of Alexandria, as being the daughter and widow of Alexandrian. and affording ample (acilities for a full physical developement by boating, swimming, skating, and other healthful and useful exercises. 2. A full course in the departments of study usually embraced in a college curriculum, and, in addition, a very extensive range of selection in Special Departments. 3. Special and prominent attention is given to the study of the history, structure and literature of the English language. Every student from the time of his admission to College will receive a systematic and thorough training in the knowledge and correct use of our mother tongue 4. Unusual facilities are afforded for the study of German, French, Italian and Spanish, without extra charge.

5. A special and comprehensive course of instruction is furnished for those who design to teach. To all such students tuition is remitted on easy conditions.

6. An extensive course of instruction is provided in Physical Geography, National Industries and Resources, Commercial Law, Book Keeping, and such other studies as are required sors of the Virginia High School, have been se o prepare young men to enter successfully into business and comercial pursuits.

EDUCATIONAL.

MRS. CASTLEMAN IS PREPARED TO re-open her school on Monday, September 17th, at No. 38, south Pitt street, second door from St. Paul's Church. Her school-room is large and airy, and situated in a central and pleasant location.

While drawing no invidious comparison with the excellent schools already established in Alexandria, she feels assured that she can offer advantages equal to any in the place. She appeals especially to the old Alexandrians, as having herself been a former resident, and more especially to the Episcopalians of Alexandria, as being the daughter and widow of Episcopal clergymen, who both fell, with the harness on, in the service of the Church. Terms, per scholastic year: $24, $32, $40 and $50, according to advancement-payable quarterly in advance.

To meet a felt want in the education of girls, there will be a sewing class, two afternoons of each week, for which an additional charge of $1.50 per month will be made.

Miss HARRIET L. POWELL, an experiment and suppose full toucher will resist in the rienced and successful teacher, will assist in the sep 13-6w English Department.
